Listing of Claims:

1. (Currently Amended) In a system for managing application installation operations, a method of communicating with an application, comprising:
at an application manager adapted to control installation operations on a computing system communicating to an application an instruction to perform a downsize operation, said instruction identifying an amount of space to be freed by the application;
at the application manager receiving from the application a call to set a property related to performing an application installation operation by the application, wherein the application installation operation is a downsize operation, further wherein the downsize operation comprises one of removing non-essential data and removing data that can be recreated from another source, wherein the data comprises video data;
at the application manager receiving from the application a call to initialize the application installation operation, said call to initialize the application installation operation notifying the application manager of an impending application installation operation to be performed by the application; at the application manager receiving from the application a call to finalize the application installation operation, said call to finalize the application installation operation communicating to the application manager the application installation operation has been completed by the application; and if the application installation operation is not executed successfully by the application, at the application manager receiving from the application a call to abort the application installation operation.

35. (Currently amended) In a system for managing application installation operations, a method of communicating with an application, comprising:

at an application manager adapted to control installation operations on a computing system communicating to an application an instruction to perform a downsize operation, said instruction identifying an amount of space to be freed by the application;

at the application manager receiving from the application a call to set a property related to performing an application downsize operation by the application, wherein the downsize operation comprises one of removing non-essential data and removing data that can be recreated from another source, ~~wherein the data is video data;~~

at the application manager receiving from the application a call to initialize the application downsize operation, said call to initialize the application downsize operation notifying the application manager of an impending downsize operation to be performed by the application;

at the application manager receiving from the application a call to finalize the application downsize operation, said call to finalize the application downsize operation communicating to the application manager the application downsize operation has been completed by the application; and if the application downsize operation is not executed successfully by the application, at the application manager receiving from the application a call to abort the application downsize operation.

36. (Original) The method of claim 35, wherein said call to set a property is SetProperty.

37. (Original) The method of claim 36, wherein said call to SetProperty has a parameter identifying application property APP_PROPERTY_GUID as the property being set.

38. (Original) The method of claim 37, wherein said call to SetProperty has a further parameter for pointing to a GUID for identifying the application that is the object of the downsize operation.

39. (Original) The method of claim 35, wherein said call to initialize the application downsize operation is InitializeUnInstall.

40. (Original) The method of claim 35, wherein said call to finalize the application downsize operation is FinalizeUnInstall.
